LIMITS: A limit is the value that a function approaches as the input approaches some value. Limits help us sketch graphs as it describes how a function behaves near a point.

